2022 Stages (reference)

7 DAYS, 650 KILOMETERS, (+-) 6240 METERS OF POSITIVE GAIN

Since the beginning, Atacama Spirits aimed to connect the Andes with the Pacific Ocean like the ancient people from this territory used to do. This adds an extra component of complexity on logistics since we have to move on everyday. We have to endure altitude, valleys and absolute desert. All this guarantees that our riders will not feel one day, like the one before. 7 days travelling like the "caravaneros" use to do. 7 days of adventures.

Working with local communities

ATACAMA SPIRIT'S HOME

In each town where we pass, we ask for permission, we hire local suppliers and we seek that the inhabitants of the territory be the ones who show their lifestyle to our riders. This produces an economic activation and our riders can also live the "Atacama Desert" experience in first person, coexist and interact with the authentic "Atacama Spirits".

7 days in Atacama Desert

AMAZING PLACES AND UNVELIABLE LANDSCAPE

The Atacama Desert offers unique opportunities and scenarios in the world for the practice of mountain biking. For years, we have built an experience that connects all these places and points of interest so that our runners can immerse themselves in a territory without comparison in the world. We have connected sites of tourist, historical, scientific and archaeological interest and even places where the common tourist does not have access.

7 Days of Pure Competition

A FULL SUPPORT AND WORLD CLASS EVENT

So that you can cross the Atacama Desert in competition mode, we have organized logistics, resources, materials and personnel so that for a week, your only concern is to resist the tough stages that can exceed 100 kilometers every day. We want to be an unmissable event on the demanding international ultramarathon circuit.

7 DAYS FULL RACING

The experience of gathering a group of motivated cyclists and crossing the Atacama Desert all together provokes indescribable energy and emotion. Something that only a mountain bike fanatic will understand and appreciate.

HELP US INSPIRE

In the 2023 challenge, together with the neighborhood council and the local indigenous community, we organized a bicycle ride for the children of the town of Quillagua, the town located in the driest sector in the world. Our runners talked and accompanied the little ones on a journey that they will surely never forget.
